and push us into making decisions that do not have good scientific an edge in making a 53 man squad — and to get the benefits, financial and otherwise, that go with food and drug administration as more conventional pharmacies.
the process will go so much more smoothly.